HELP OTHERS PROSPER

From dinners with community members in need to serving as a student mentor in schools, Resilient volunteers are making an impact locally. Resilient, a Christian Community Development organization born from the missions ministry of Christ Church provides leadership development and spiritual formation for youth. Volunteers offers a host of services to residents within Villa Park, Lombard and Oak Brook Terrace via: high school leadership initiatives, elementary and middle school mentoring programs, job training, English as a Second Language programming and community engagement with its partnering churches.
