

Weekly Update

August 4, 2021

Share with others

We have enjoyed seeing so many of you at our last Worship Wednesday and invite you to come out again tonight at 7:00 p.m. in the parking lot of our Oak Brook campus. Our worship team is ready to lead us and Pastor Eric Haskins will be preaching. Come early to fellowship and enjoy free frozen treats. For more information, click here.

Join A Group

We invite you to explore how you can take a next step in your faith journey. Learn more here.

Register Kids Today

Please register your kids for children's programming here.

Serve With Us

Looking for ways to get more involved at Christ Church? We have many ways for you to use your skills and interests. Learn more here.

This Sunday Pastor Steve Carter will continue our Summer Lights series asking the simple question, "how is life working for you?" Steve will open the Bible to explore how we can discover the beauty of the grace, peace and wholeness God has for us. He will teach from Esther 3 and from his new book, "The Thing Beneath the Thing," which aims to help readers identify and heal from past wounds. To learn more about Steve and see a full list of series preachers, click here.

Gather

Journey with others in their 20s as you grow deeper in your faith. Learn more here.

Financial News

Our second quarter update is now available online here.

Support God's Work

We are grateful for your generous support. To give now, click here.

STAY CONNECTED | READ MORE ONLINE

