Share with others

This Sunday we'll gather for Holy Communion at both our Contemporary and Classic worship services. You can learn more here about partaking in person or at home. Communion is as much about a personal commitment to one's faith journey as it is a public expression meant to be shared with others. Invite someone this weekend to partake in this sacrament with you.

GATHER TOGETHER FOR HOLY COMMUNION

Rev. Tara Beth Leach will be exploring the Beatitudes at our Contemporary gathering and what it means to live a blessed life; while Rev. Rick Glyman will be inviting us to look at the wonder and power of God's forgiveness at our Classic gathering. Both are great opportunities to invite someone to worship.

Please register your kids for children's programming here.

We are helping with storm relief for area residents in need as well as coordinating volunteers for clean up. Learn more here.

Our next Financial Peace University session starts July 11. To learn more and register, click here.

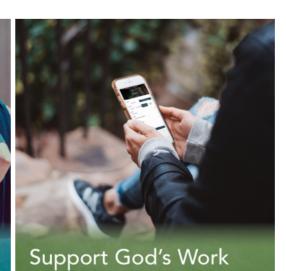

Beginning Sunday, July 11, our 11:00 a.m. Classic worship service will transition to mask-optional for all those who have been vaccinated. Adults and children who have not been fully vaccinated are still asked to wear masks inside our facilities. To learn more about our in-person gathering protocols, click here.

Check out our summer reading list, create a book some conversation club and invite your friends to join. Learn more here.
